the Port of Palm Beach. The obligations of this paragraph shall survive termination of the License.

e. The Licensee shall receive advance direction from the Port, its Executive Director, Director of Operations, or their designee, as to the use of any facilities and areas of the Port by any customers of the Licensee, however, Licensee shall be responsible, in accordance with subparagraph (d), above, for their customers actions.

f. The Licensee shall provide the Port with a Financial Guaranty in the form of a cash, letter of credit issued by a bank having an office in Palm Beach County Florida, (please provide the address of the local branch) which can be presented for payment in Palm Beach County, Florida, or payment bond by a carrier with an A.M. Best Rating of "A" or better in the principal amount of $25,000.

g. Failure to maintain the required Financial Guaranty in full force and effect during the term of this License shall be cause for the Executive Director or his designee to suspend or terminate this License immediately.

h. The Licensee shall abide by all applicable provisions, rules, and regulations of the Port of Palm Beach current Tariff.

The Port, by and through its Executive Director or his designee may revoke or suspend the License if it finds misconduct, neglect of duty, or other cause for complaint constituting a breach of this License.

The License is not automatically renewable. In order to renew this License for an additional year, Licensee shall submit to the Port, not less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of the License an affidavit form, as required by the Port. The Port may refuse to renew this License with or without cause.

This License cannot be transferred or assigned. Any attempt to transfer, assign, or otherwise use this License in an unauthorized manner shall be cause for suspension or revocation. In the event the Licensee shall desire to utilize this License by another individual, firm, corporation, or business entity which is not disclosed in the Licensee's application filed with, and approved by, the Port, then the Licensee shall submit a new application to the Port setting forth the required information pertinent to the proposed user of the License. Said application shall be submitted with an Application Fee. For the purposes of this paragraph, an assignment or transfer shall include:

a. Any transfer of the majority beneficial interest or stock ownership of the firm, corporation, or business entity holding this License.

No Stevedore work may be performed at the Port of Palm Beach District unless a current Stevedore License is in effect.
