Port of Palm Beach District Board of Commissioners Appoints Varisa Lall Dass to serve as Port Commissioner for Group 2

Riviera Beach, Fla. – During the December 30th Special Board Meeting, the Port of Palm Beach District Board of Commissioners appointed Varisa Lall Dass to the Port Commissioner Group 2 seat vacated by Katherine Waldron on November 8, 2022 . Lall Dass will serve the remainder of Waldron’s term set to expire in January 2025 when electors within the Port of Palm Beach District select a replacement.

Prior to today’s appointment, Lall Dass was appointed as the Port’s representative for the Palm Beach Transportation Planning Agency Citizens Advisory Committee. She also served on the Port’s 2022 Independent Audit Committee.

Lall Dass will be sworn in on Thursday, January 5, 2023.

About Port of Palm Beach

Located in Riviera Beach, the Port of Palm Beach is a full-service, diversified port, offering cruise and cargo services to more than 30 onsite tenants and users. At 165 acres, the Port’s efficiency is unparalleled, processing more than $14 billion in commodities, 2.5 million tons of cargo, and 500,000 cruise passengers annually. As one of the largest employers in Palm Beach County, the Port of Palm Beach and its tenants employ more than 3,800 people. Through the contribution of more than $185 million in business revenue and $17.5 million in tenant-contributed state and local annual tax revenue, the Port of Palm Beach is a large economic engine in South Florida. The Port of Palm Beach District has not levied property taxes since 1975. For more information, visit www.portofpalmbeach.com.
