Port of Palm Beach Welcomes New Cruise Line “Bahamas Paradise Cruise Line”

(Riviera Beach, FL) - The Port of Palm Beach announces today they have a new cruise line arriving at the Port.

Bahamas Paradise Cruise Line will be sailing out of the Port of Palm Beach as early as February, 2015. The cruise line will sail the MV Grand Celebration.

"This is a tremendous day for the Port of Palm Beach and Palm Beach County," said Manuel Almira Executive Director for the port. "The MV Grand Celebration is absolutely gorgeous and we are ecstatic to have this wonderful cruise ship sail out of our port."

The Grand Celebration has 10 public decks and 751 large cabins with more than sixty percent having an ocean view. The ship also has 14 elegant terrace suites.

The pool deck has five pools and Jacuzzis. The ship also offers a stunning spa and fitness center with beauty treatments, massages, saunas and steam rooms. The ship will provide five elegant restaurants with five-star dining options. A casino including black jack, poker, roulette and dice. A state-of-the-art 950 seat performance center will provide big named concerts onboard during sailings.

"We couldn't be happier, an agreement with the new multiday cruise vessel will generate on average nearly $3.9 million of annual net revenue as well as bring significant local spending to Palm Beach County," said Edward Opper, Chairman for the Port.

Bahamas Paradise Cruise Line will offer two-night Bahamas cruises and cruise & resort stay vacation packages from four to eight nights. The Grand Celebration will sail every other day of the week from the Port of Palm Beach. Please visit BahamasParadiseCruise.com or GrandCelebration.com for more information.
